

Emerging themes and new challenges in Gender Research at Stockholm University

9am – 4 pm on Friday Dec 5th

Venue: van der Nootska Palatset, Sankt Paulsgatan 21.

Conference program:

8.15 – 8.45: Tea/coffee and sandwich.

8.45- 9.00: Welcome.

9.00- 10.15:

Presentation of papers: session 1.

Chair: Fanny Ambjörnsson

Åsa Eriksson:

Narratives on precarity and resistance among Western Cape farmworkers in the aftermaths of a major strike – exploring intersecting power relations

Discussant: Yvonne Svanström

Sanja Nivesjö:

Queer Movements: Sexual Desire, Space and Home in Damon Galgut's In a Strange Room and Phaswane Mpe's Welcome to Our Hillbrow

Discussant: Lena Gemzöe

Lisa Svanfeldt-Winter:

Scientific travel, gender and scientific personae during the first half of the 20th century

Discussants: Lena Gemzöe and Yvonne Svanström

10.15-10. 45

Short presentations from different disciplines.

Chair: Åsa Eriksson

Tea/coffee.

10.45 – 12.00

Presentation of papers: session 2.

Chair: Åsa Eriksson

Stina Malmén:

The daughters of family firms: career patterns among women in business 1870-1970.

Discussant: Kirsti Niskanen

Vanja Hermele:

State of the Art. The Quest for Equality and the Consequence for Change in State Funded Art Institutions.

Discussant: Jessica Sjöholm Skrubbe

Elin Abrahamsson:

Enahanda läsning – en queer läsning av romance-genren som en onanistisk praktik

Discussant: Maria Jansson

12.00-13.00

Lunch

13.00-14.15

Presentation of papers: session 3.

Chair: Åsa Eriksson

Martina Angela Caretta and Natasha Webster:

Communities of practice and local gender contract: an exploratory analysis

Discussant: Marja-Liisa Keinänen

Emma Rosengren:

From Nuclear Protection to Nuclear Disarmament. Gender in Sweden's Nuclear Reversal.

Discussant: Anita Nyberg

Helene Ohlsson:

The masculine woman, the unnatural mother and the Lolita with her boyish scamp behavior.

Discussant: Fanny Ambjörnsson

14.15-15.15

Concluding discussion.

The upcoming gender conference at SU during 2016 and activities in 2015.

15.15-16.00: Glöggmingel!